A JOHNSON CONVENTION

HAD COMPLETE CONTROL OF OHIO DEMOCRATS

Secures Nomination for Governor and Has His Man Endorsed for United States Senator—The Platform

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 26.—The Johnson program was so completely carried out in the Ohio Democratic convention to day that not only was Tom L. Johnson nominated for governor by acclamation, but the entire Johnson slate went through. The ticket is:

Governor—Tom L. Johnson, Cleveland.
Lieutenant governor—Frank B. Niles, Toledo.
Supreme judge—Edward J. Dempsey, Cincinnati.
Attorney general—Frank S. Monnet, Columbus.
Treasurer—V. J. Dahl, Washington Court House.
Auditor—Charles A. Kloebe, Wapakoneta.
School commissioner—J. H. Seerest, Ottawa.
Member board of public works—T. H. B. Jones, Dayton.

The name of John L. Zimmerman, of Springfield, was not presented for the gubernatorial nomination. Zimmerman's name was attempted to prevent endorsement of a national candidate, but were defeated, 36 to 21. On naming a man for senator the Johnson men were divided among themselves. Mayor Johnson and ex-Congressman Lantz have been very close personally and politically for years, but a most intensely bitter feeling existed between them to day, at least on the part of Lantz, who openly accused Johnson of favoring for senator a man who had voted against Bryan. The Zimmerman men had intended voting for John H. Carter, the Johnson candidate for senator, as they said he represented their conservative views, but when Lantz opened the fight on the senatorial candidate the Zimmerman men resumed their obstructive tactics and voted for Lantz for senator, thus sending the Johnson men to a second ballot. They succeeded in having Clarke endorsed.

The convention was as distinctly with Bryan on national as with Johnson on state issues. The speeches of both Temporary Chairman Saltzgeber and Permanent Chairman J. H. Goetz insisted that if the Democratic party is to change its policy to suit the times the changes must be made by friends of the party and not by its enemies.

THE PLATFORM.

Assembled in convention at Columbus, preparatory to the state election of 1903, we, the Democrats of Ohio, reaffirming the declaration on national issues of our platform of 1900, adopted at Sandusky, hereby renew our allegiance to the Democratic party of the nation and again avow devotion to the principles of its last national platform. We accordingly condemn colonialism and imperialism, denounce trusts and trust-fostering tariffs, denounce government by injunction and undue financial monopoly, together with every other legalized monopoly and legalized privilege. Adhering to these principles of the Kansas City platform, we repeat our condemnation of all efforts to compromise or ignore them.

While the platform contains over 3,000 words the above paragraph is the only reference to national issues. The people are asked to determine whether all state interests are to be sacrificed for the reelection of Hanna as senator. The platform denounces the corrupt union which Republican managers of Ohio have made with privileged corporations as shown by the recent history of Ohio taxation; urges present laws for assessing property of all public service corporations be so changed as to compel assessment of those properties at not less than their salable value and to prevent their evasion of just taxation; declares that until United States senators are required by amendment to the federal constitution to be elected by popular vote nominations of candidates for United States senators should be made by state conventions.

Wm. J. Bryan, by special resolution, was invited to speak in Ohio in support of these declarations of principles.

HEAVY RAINFALL.

Omaha, Aug. 26.—There was a record breaking rainfall throughout eastern Nebraska and western Iowa during the past twenty-four hours. In Omaha the precipitation was over two inches in three hours and flooded a number of business places. Farms were flooded in the country districts and great damage done unthreshed wheat.

SENTENCED FOR EXTORTION.

New York, Aug. 26.—Samuel L. Parks, business agent of the housewives' and bridgemen's union, was sentenced to day to not less than two years and six months or no more than three years and six months in Sing Sing on charge of extortion.

ENGLISHMAN WON TENNIS FINALS.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 26.—H. L. Doherty defeated W. J. Clothier in the national tennis finals to day.

RESCUES TWO FROM DROWNING

Athlete, Although Handicapped by Broken Arm, Saves Mother and Child.

Decatur, Aug. 26.—Edward Thayer, an athlete and expert swimmer of this city, in spite of the handicap of a broken arm heroically rescued from drowning in the Sangamon river Mrs. Thomas Norris and little daughter of Springfield. The man, in diving into the stream, struck a submerged log and badly fractured the bone of his left forearm. In spite of the injury he continued in the work of his rescue and saved the woman and child from death.

This afternoon as Thayer was swimming in the river he was attracted by cries for help. He left the water and ran a distance of a hundred yards around a bend in the stream, when he saw Mrs. Norris and her little daughter floundering in the river where the water was fully twenty feet deep. They were about twenty-five feet from the bank.

The swimmer rescued the little girl first and then went back after the mother. By this time several men had gathered on the bank and helped the two to reach dry land when the woman had been brought near the shore. Thayer blames the men, who, it seems, evinced no disposition to take part in the work of rescue when there was any danger.

The victims of the accident reside near Springfield and had been visiting friends in Decatur for the last few days. They were wandering along the river bank and the child was poking the water with a pole when she lost her balance and fell in.

The mother attempted to save the child and in an instant both were in deep water where they were helpless.

Thayer is an expert swimmer and all around athlete. He formerly had charge of a natatorium here as instructor. He looks upon the rescue as a matter of little importance and seems concerned mostly over the action of the men who stood on the bank and offered no assistance while he was bringing the woman ashore.

Neither the woman nor the child were unconscious when taken from the water, but both were helpless. They are violently ill as a result of the experience.

PLEASED WITH ALASKA

Senate Sub Committee Returns From Profitable Visit to the Territory

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 26.—The revenue cutter McCulloch arrived from Nome, having on board a subcommittee of the senate committee on territories. The party are all well and report a pleasant and profitable trip. The committee is evidently persuaded Alaska should have a delegate in congress, but is probably not prepared to make a statement. Construction of a national highway from Valdez to Eagle by government aid is regarded with favor. The committee left for Seattle this evening, where they will separate for home.

FINERTY'S ADDRESS.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—John F. Finerty, president of the United Irish league of America, issued an address regarding "The Land Bill Victory," in which he predicts a restoration of the Irish parliament. Declaring himself a separatist he says: "Total separation would call for an Irish fleet, army and treasury overflowing with golden millions and at least one powerful ally like France, Germany or America. I will leave it to the judgment of my fellow countrymen and fellow citizens how soon all these requirements are either probable or possible to Ireland. The alternative of an independent parliament is an honorable compromise, but not a final settlement."

COLOMBIAN POLITICS.

Bogota, Aug. 26.—Efforts are being made to reunite conservatives and nationalists so as to face the liberals together in next year's presidential election. It is believed if union is effected and General Reyes nominated he will be elected president. It is also stated that national opposition to the canal treaty is wholly political and that if an agreement for union is made with conservatives the opposition would be unnecessary. If Reyes' candidacy is confirmed his friends in congress will change their attitude, which is now against ratification of the treaty.

SECRETARY WILSON SPEAKS.

Minneapolis, Aug. 26.—Secretary of Agriculture Wilson addressed the forestry convention to night. He quoted statistics to show the extent of forestry in this country and what the government is doing to promote it. He said the lumber interests were worth $56,000,000 a year. The wood farmers cut on their wood lots is twice that amount and wood pulp used in the manufacture of paper $10,000,000. He declared unless something was done immediately there would be very few tracts of timber within fifteen years. Speeches were also made by Mr. Roth of the University of Michigan and Professor Green of the University of Minnesota.

FRENCH COMMISSION REPORTS

ON PLAN TO ESTABLISH A MONETARY EXCHANGE

Not Prepared to Express Final Conclusion—Endorse the Principle of Gold Standard for China.

Paris, Aug. 26.—The report of the French commission appointed to confer with the United States monetary exchange commissioners has been delivered to Ambassador Porter. It contains a note from Foreign Minister Delcasse saying France is not prepared to express a conclusion until she has consulted with other powers. The report endorses the principle of a gold standard for China and other silver using countries, but points out the plan is impossible only by judicious control of coinage by government and creation of an adequate gold reserve. It favors a coinage ratio for the orient, fixing the value of silver slightly above its bullion value, similar to the American system in the Philippines.

The French commission makes reservation upon the proposed regular purchases of silver on the grounds that it is impossible to foresee a country's needs for subsidiary and colonial coinage.

Semi-official advices indicate Russia's commission made similar conclusions. French and Russians considered it preferable to establish a uniform system in China by beginning on a silver basis and afterward raising it to a fixed gold value, then to begin on a gold standard immediately.

Virginia, Nev., Aug. 26.—Officers yesterday received notice from Reno two men resembling convicts were coming over Geiger grade and about five a man resembling Convict Eldridge and answering his description was arrested about a mile from town. The dead: W. O. Roll, superintendent; Earnest Penman, Jerry Haworth. Thirty other workers escaped injury. To day's explosion was the second to occur within a month. The mill had just been rebuilt and was making dynamite for blasting in lead and zinc mines in this territory.

SEEKS DAMAGES

Springfield Girl, Bitten by an Indiana Sweetheart, Will Resort to the Courts.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 26.—Miss Freda Parks, of Springfield, Ill., is at Washington, Ind., in consultation with attorneys, who will bring an action against F. S. Slossen, a traveling representative of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, for breach of promise, in which judgment will be prayed for $10,000.

Miss Parks alleges that she engaged to marry Slossen, who possesses considerable wealth, next month, and that in preparation for the wedding she prepared her trousseau, her gown representing the expenditure of considerable money.

While in the midst of preparations for the nuptial event in which she was to be principal, Miss Parks learned of the marriage of Slossen to Miss Sue Gardiner, daughter of Judge W. R. Gardiner, a leading Indiana jurist. The case, if brought to trial, a compromise being impossible, will unfold interesting chapters.

LIPTON IS HOPEFUL

Will Not Give Up Until the Last Race Is Run—Another Contest To Day.

New York, Aug. 26.—Sir Thomas Lipton said this afternoon: "I have not lost hope and I shall fight and die hard. If I cannot win I will take defeat in the proper spirit."

Both yachts remained at their anchorage all day. The Reliance's new gaff was measured and was found to be the same length as the old, so her measurement was the same as before.

RACE PROSPECTS POOR.

The wind at Sandy Hook at midnight was southeast, about three miles an hour. The sky is cloudy and prospects for a race to morrow appear poor.

EDISON HAS CANCER CURE.

New York, Aug. 26.—Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, believes he has a cancer cure. He became interested in the subject because one of his subjects developed a cancer through using the X-rays. Mr. Edison's theory is that any cancer which begins as Daly's did, on the surface, can be cured by the introduction of fresh blood from a healthy subject into the blood of the person affected. By this means Mr. Edison believes that the seat of the disease can be attacked by uncontaminated germs, possessing the strength to conquer the malady. The inventor, while he thinks he has hit upon a cure for certain forms of cancer, says he will let the surgeons and scientists work out the problem.

TIRED OF RICH MAN'S SON.

New York, Aug. 26.—"I am tired of being the wife of a rich man's son who will not work to support me. Rather than live on what his father gives him I have asked my attorneys to begin action for separation so I can be free and work for myself and child." These were the words to day of Mrs. Irving L. Blinn, whose father-in-law, L. W. Blinn, is a millionaire lumber dealer in Los Angeles, Calif.

Irving Blinn had just graduated from college when a theatrical company of which Miss Genevieve Nannery was the ingenue began a season in Los Angeles and he fell in love with her. They were married, but a few years ago disagreements became apparent and Mrs. Blinn came to New York, bringing her son Lewis with her.

HEAVY RAINFALL.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Aug. 26.—Two cloudbursts, one at 1:30 this afternoon and one at 9:30 to night, destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property in this city. Hundreds of families in the lower districts of this city were removed from their homes with difficulty. Many business houses were flooded and damage to stocks will amount into the thousands. The rainfall here for twenty-four hours was six inches.

MARY ANDERSON COMING.

London, Aug. 26.—That Mary Anderson Navarro will revisit her native land soon and again appear before the public is the hope of Robert Grau, who sailed Saturday on the Lucania for the United States.

Mr. Grau has asked Mme. De Navarro to give a series of readings in America and has offered her $25,000 for a series of 150 readings from Shakespeare and other poets. She has neither accepted nor declined the offer yet.

LARGE BODY OF TROOPS

WILL BE SENT INTO MACEDONIA BY TURKEY

Strong Efforts will be Made to Suppress the Rebellion—Lia Issued by Macedonian Committee of Atrocities.

Constantinople, Aug. 26.—The government has decided to call to colors all remaining European reserves belonging to the second and third army corps and a number of other reserves, which will bring the total of Turkish soldiers in Macedonia up to 350 battalions, or almost double the force utilized in the Turkish-Greek war. Enrollment of such large bodies of troops indicated the seriousness with which Turkey views the situation and her determination to use all means at her disposal to repress the rebellion. Seven battalions were dispatched to Florina from Monastir. The walls of Monastir and Salonica telegraphed they are now able to guarantee maintenance of order in their respective towns.

CREATED SENSATION.

Sofia, Aug. 26.—The Macedonian committee has issued a black-bordered list of seventy villages which have been pillaged and destroyed in the vilayet of Monastir, to which are added instances of revolting outrages perpetrated on women. The publication of this sheet has created a sensation. No news has been received in official circles to day from the interior of Macedonia. Revolutionists claim that they are going to have six quick firing guns in that district. Insurgents defeated and slaughtered an entire detachment of eighty soldiers. A Turkish courier carrying 40,000 francs intended for the pay of troops was captured by insurgents near Surovitchovo. Rebels have blown up iron bridges over the Doeh Ravin on the iron road between Losengrad and Demirdendard.

EAGER FOR WAR.

London, Aug. 26.—The Sofia correspondent of the Times asserts radical leaders are inclined to advocate the establishment of an autonomous government in Macedonia. The Sixth regiment, notorious for its share in the conspiracy against the late King Alexander, is especially eager for war and it seems not improbable King Peter, yielding to military dictation, may eventually place himself at the head of the warlike movement. The Vienna correspondent of the Times says the Balkan outlook is daily darkening and Turkey is taking precautions for the safety of Constantinople.

MUST TAKE OATH

Employees of Government Printing Office Ordered to Swear Allegiance to U. S.

Washington, Aug. 26.—An order from Public Printer Palmer was issued to heads of divisions of the government printing office to day to take the oath of allegiance to the United States as subscribed to by clerks under civil service. Palmer said to night he had issued an order at the suggestion of a government official whose name he declined to give. He said its object was to place per diem employees in the same attitude toward the government as that of clerks on annual salary who have subscribed to the order. He said every employee of the office would be affected by the order. Issuance of the order created considerable surprise among employees of the office, especially among members of the bookbinders' union, who believe it has indirectly a bearing on issues growing out of the recent case of Assistant Foreman Miller.

ADOPT SPRINGFIELD RIFLE.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Aug. 26.—Announcement was made here to day by a member of the special board appointed by the ordinance department to make rifle tests at Buffalo that the United States government will in a few days issue formal announcement of the adoption of the improved Springfield rifle and discarding of the Krag. The weapon weighs seven pounds, while the Krag weighs nine. The Krags will be distributed to militia of various states.

BROKE AROUND-WORLD RECORD.

New York, Aug. 26.—Henry Frederick, who left New York city July 2 on the steamer Dutchland for a tour around the world, with the hope of breaking the record, returned to night on the New York Central railroad. Frederick was successful, having made the circuit fifty-four days, seven hours and twenty minutes, or about fifty minutes shorter than the previous record.

THE POWERS TRIAL.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 26.—Arguments in the Caleb Powers case continued all day and probably will be concluded before Saturday. The line of the defense argument is that Yontsey shot Goebel of his own volition. The prosecution holds that Yontsey and Howard were tools in the hands of Taylor, Powers, and Finley and that they were leaders of the conspiracy.

BASE BALL MAGNATES

A New National Agreement to be Submitted to Minor Leagues

Buffalo, Aug. 26.—The meeting of base ball magnates adjourned to night after a new national agreement had been submitted to minor leagues. A meeting of the National Association of Minor Leagues will be held within ten days to consider the agreement. Practically every demand of the minor leagues was accepted, the most important being that they will have absolute control of their international affairs. Presidents Pulliam and Johnson and August Hermann, of Cincinnati, were appointed as a committee to adjust matters between the major and minor leagues.

The agreement provides that major leagues shall adopt all rules governing base ball. The right of major league clubs to their players is absolute. The practice of farming is prohibited. All right of claim of a major league club to a player shall cease when such player becomes a member of a minor league club and on arrangement between clubs for loan or return of a player shall be binding between parties to it or recognized by other clubs. The right of a minor league club to its players shall be absolute except from Aug. 15 to Oct. 15 major league clubs shall have the privilege of selecting players from National association clubs for the following season upon payment of $750 for each player so selected from clubs in class A leagues, $500 for each player from class B leagues, $300 for each player so selected from clubs in class C leagues and $200 for each player so selected from clubs of lower classes.

A major league club may at any time purchase the release of a player from a minor league club to take effect forthwith or at a specified date, provided such purchase is recorded with the secretary of the commission for promulgating within five days of the date of the transaction.

Several of the articles are designed to protect players. A player suspended longer than ten days shall have the right to appeal to the commission. Playing games for a stake is prohibited. A player or club is forbidden to accept a sum of money as an inducement or reward for special effort on his part to win games.

Victoria, B. C., Aug. 26.—According to mail advices from Shanghai several hundred lives were lost in a great flood at Chefoo, briefly reported by cable. Stores and warehouses were flooded. Property loss will reach millions.

FREIGHT HOUSE BURNED.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—At midnight fire broke out in the freight house of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific. The flames had secured quite a start when discovered and by the time engines arrived the building, which is 350 feet long and two stories high, was a mass of flames and firemen from the first had little hope of saving the structure or any of its contents. Loss principally on outgoing freight and estimated at $500,000. The fire is supposed to have originated in the carpenter shop of the building. Special calls for additional engines were made and all fireboats in the service of the city were soon at work, but in spite of the utmost efforts of the department the building and its contents was almost entirely destroyed. The loss will not be accurately known for several days, but probably will be $500,000.

Five other fires, small affairs, within a few blocks of the freight house, were burning at the same time. Just before this a fire in Revell & Co.'s store caused $40,000 damage. At the time the fires were in progress the heaviest rain of the season was falling.

He was the son of Asa and Elizabeth Hadin and was born in Adair county, Ky., Nov. 5, 1820, making him almost 83 years old at his death. He came with his parents to Illinois in the fall of 1832. Mr. Hardin has held a number of public offices. He served for two years as deputy sheriff under J. B. Perkins, from November, 1858, to November, 1860. He was deputy county treasurer under O. R. Baker. In 1864 he was elected city assessor and collector and in 1873 was elected county clerk. In late years he has been engaged in the abstract business.

FALSE CHARGES AGAINST YATES

Chicago Paper's Assertion Governor Issued Permits Allowing Girls to Work in Music Halls in Violation of Child Labor Statute Shown to be Untrue.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—As a further evidence of the thorough unreliability, not to say malicious mendacity, of the Chicago Record-Herald, mention is here made of an article appearing in that paper, Aug. 17, under the glaring headline: "Yates Blamed for Violation of Laws," with a sub-head charging that the governor issued permits allowing girls to work in music halls, despite the child labor statute. The article went on to say that Samuel T. Wheeler, secretary of the Actors' union, had made the statement at a meeting in Bricklayers' hall, in Chicago, attended by the central body of the Federation of Labor, that he knew of a little girl employed in a dance hall, who held a permit from the governor himself.

All this appeared with much elaboration and unfavorable comments in a most prominent page of the paper. An investigation was made by Samuel Reiger, a deputy factory inspector, and the absolute falsity of the charge established. The report of this deputy to the chief factory inspector, E. T. Davies, discloses the thoroughness of the investigation and is a most positive refutation of the charge. It establishes the fact that there was no music hall at or near the place mentioned by the Record-Herald.

ENDLESS CHAIN SCHEME.

Postal cards like the following are being received by Jacksonville and Morgan county ladies, which disclose a novel endless chain scheme: "Dear Friend: A national league is being formed to start a crusade against the cigarette habit. The league covers the whole country. Every woman is asked to send name and address to be used in a petition to congress asking for a national law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors. Will you please send your name and address with this card to the N. E. Moral society, Philadelphia, Pa.; also write four like this and send to four of your friends! Please do this without fail, or the chain will be broken and its object defeated. Please be prompt!"

One cautious woman wrote to a leading official of the Philadelphia W. C. T. U. for information, and received the following reply:

"I write you in regard to a communication received from my friend. It is not all right (as she asked me) for white-ribboners to send their names to any 'national league' about to start a crusade against the cigarette. We white-ribboners have made investigations and we find there is no society in Philadelphia for any such purpose and we have been told that names received from women are used for advertising and other purposes. We have been warned against the scheme repeatedly. Although no serious consequences may come from answering these postal cards, respectable ladies will do well to let it alone. The names so obtained will probably be sold to advertisers, mail order houses, etc., etc., and cause much annoyance to the victims later. Be careful what you write and to whom you write, is a needed amendment to the time tested motto, 'Sign no paper for a stranger.'"

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

Making and Keeping Soup Stock. Invariably the housewife who has a reputation for fine soups is the one who supervises the food left from each meal and sets that no bone, unless burned in the broiling; no scrap of meat, but the least bit of vegetables, is wasted. All these she uses in her soup kettle. This indeed is the French woman's secret, and she helps it out with judicious seasonings. For the purpose a piece of the shin of beef, with the bone which contains the marrow; a knuckle of veal for additional gelatin and the cold meat and bones which have been saved should soak in cold water for half an hour or so and then be brought very slowly to a simmer. When the meat is cooked to shreds and the knuckles fall apart it is time to remove the kettle. Many persons season the stock while it is cooking, but this practice has its disadvantages. In the first place, vegetable juices will cause it to sour much more readily; besides, once it has been seasoned it is impossible to vary it so decidedly. Then, too, in the daily scalding of the stock, which is necessary if the fat is removed from the top, much of the flavor is lost in steam. It is an excellent plan to fill stone crocks, each holding enough for one day's supply, to let the cake of grease form upon them and when they are entirely cold to cover them and place them in the refrigerator. Undisturbed and in a cool place the stock will keep for two weeks.

Antique English Furniture. It is still quite a common experience to find fine and even valuable specimens of old English furniture, chiefly made out of oak, in the cottages of the village folk. These pieces of furniture have been handed down from generation to generation of rural folk, such as carters, keepers, woodmen and shepherds. How did the family originally come by them? The explanation is this in many cases: Generations ago, when the furniture, which is once again prized greatly, began to go out of fashion and to be superseded by stuff which we view with contempt nowadays, it was sold, and farmers bought much of it. But by and by the farmer, being prosperous and desiring to be in the fashion, too, like his landlord, bought in its place more modern chairs and furnishings. Then the village folk bought for a song the displaced oak furniture, and now once again the old pieces have come into favor and are finding their way back from the cottage to the hall.

A Quaint Settle. A delightful piece of furniture is the Grantly settle. The room into which it goes should be in the mission style, though this particular piece might go right in many quaint rooms not strictly mission. It would be attractive in a big hall or in a living room. It may be had in various effects, the tan brown (dark nut color) being most liked, however.

The one shown is beautifully grained and knotted; that is, the wood from which it is made is, and all this is brought out still stronger by the agreeable stain. The lines are particularly good, and the seat is cushioned in an equally admirable style, the material which serves as a covering being old fashioned moreen.

Hygienic Bedroom Hints.

Every bedroom should be provided with the essentials for healthful sleep and the daily sponge bath.

As nearly as possible the room should be kept free from anything that would tend to contaminate the air.

It should be as large as one can afford, and the windows so arranged that they may be opened at the top and bottom.

If possible the floors should be bare and the rug so small that they can be taken out of doors with ease for cleaning and airing.

Everything about the room should be washable.

The bed should be light and fitted with strong casters, so that it may be readily moved.

Many people prefer a cheap, hard mattress next the spring and a light one of hair on this, but any kind of mattress is better than one that is too soft.

Above all, do not overfurnish the bedroom.

Take four fresh hard boiled eggs, chop whites fine, rub yolks to paste and add sea-salt with salt and pepper; chop silver and wrinkle whites and curves through a large head of crisp lettuce; wash and drain and arrange of a dish like a nest; press yolks through a potato ricer in the center; serve with French or mayonnaise dressing.

Washing Hands. An excellent washing fluid is made of one part of castile soap, one part of water and one part of vinegar. It is sold by J. A. Obermeyer.

FOR MORE CORN

Prof. Holden Tells Farmers What to do During Winter Months—May Result in Better Crops.

"Let every farmer in the seven great corn states give a few winter evenings and 480,000,000 bushels will be added to the annual corn crop of the corn belt."

This is the advice of Professor Holden of the Iowa state college of agriculture, formerly connected with the Illinois college.

It isn't increased acreage that Professor Holden wants; it is better results from the present acreage. It is not by any artificial culture that he would bring about these results. He promises that they shall be realized if the farmer does the simple thing of putting a hundred live kernels of corn in every thirty hills.

In a word, his plan requires only the sorting by hand of seed corn and the filling of plates in corn planters in such a way as to drop the required number of grains of corn in each hill.

To find how much the farmers of Iowa are losing each year by not properly planting corn, Professor Holden last year sent 1,000 letters to all parts of Iowa, asking the number of stalks in each hill in corn fields. He found that the stand was 75 per cent of what he has demonstrated will produce the largest yield, and last year's corn crop was generally considered a good stand.

The other day he himself inspected twenty-four of the best corn fields he could find and found that the average lack of a stand was 28.7 per cent. He has found that the best results are obtained from an average of about three and a third stalks per hill.

"I have found one stalk in a hill will produce but one-third as much corn as a proper number of stalks, two stalks one-half of a yield and five stalks three-fourths of a yield. In making my tables I counted either three or four stalks a 100 per cent stand."

"For ten years the average yield of corn in Iowa has been approximately thirty-five bushels. A yield of thirty-five bushels with a 70 per cent stand, which is the average found in a number of years, would become fifty bushels with a 100 per cent stand."

On the big Funk farm at Bloomington, Ill., Professor Holden's theory was carried out last year. Several thousand acres were planted with seed sorted by hand, through planters adjusted to drop the proper number of kernels.

Previously, the best yield was fifty-eight bushels an acre. Last year the average was seventy-two bushels. Of the grain, Professor Holden estimates 80 per cent was due to the stand and 20 per cent to the excellent germinating power of the seed. In the experiment fields under Professor Holden's control the yield has never been less than sixty bushels since 1896.

JUDGE BEAN HERE

Representative of Jacksonville, Carlville & St. Louis Electric Line Talks of His Project.

Judge P. W. Bean, representing a Chicago and Springfield syndicate of capitalists, arrived in the city from Carlville Wednesday evening and will remain in the city and county for several days for the purpose of securing the right of way for the proposed Jacksonville, Nortonville, Scottville, Carlville, Gillespie, Staunton, Edwardsville and East St. Louis electric railroad. Judge Bean feels very much encouraged over the outlook and stated to a reporter last evening that two-thirds of the right of way over the proposed distance had been secured, and that barring unforeseen accident the road would undoubtedly be constructed. Most of the right of way has been donated and Judge Bean figures that the value of the land for a distance of two miles on each side will be increased at least $25 an acre when the road is in operation. The width of the right of way asked for it fifty feet and it is expected that this will be donated in exchange for the undoubted benefit to be received.

The road would certainly be a great boon to such towns as Nortonville and Scottville that are now without railroad communication of any description. Judge Bean will probably take a trip through the southern end of the county Friday or Saturday for the purpose of ascertaining the feeling of the land owners in that locality.

If the proposition matures according to the plans as originally outlined it is expected to begin the work of grading along the right of way during this fall and early winter.

MARRIED AT TAYLORVILLE.

Lorenzo D. Jolly, residing near Markham, was in the city Wednesday and reported at this office that his marriage to Mrs. Clemens Ketcham, which occurred at Taylorville on Aug. 5, has been kept a secret and that none of their friends about here knew of this event, because mention has never been made in the local papers. The report of their marriage, however, appeared in the Taylorville, Quincy and Decatur papers and they have been residing near Markham since their marriage.

CHOICE MISCELLANY

Deaf Mutes Never Glad.

According to a Germantown doctor who sees much of the children in the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb at Mount Airy, a deaf mute can whirl around interminably without seeming to suffer in any way from vertigo. "I have seen them do it repeatedly," he said, "and their performances bear out a theory of Dr. William James, the Harvard psychologist—the brother, you know, of Henry James, the novelist. There is a certain tube connected with the ear that is the seat, according to William James, of our sensations of dizziness or vertigo. In deaf mutes this tube is deranged. Therefore, according to James' theory, deaf mutes should be incapable of suffering vertigo. The psychologist experimented on this matter at Harvard. He had hundreds of deaf and normal persons spinning round like these children for him, and the result of the experiment bore him out. Out of a large number of mutes most were proof against vertigo, and the balance only suffered it slightly. Of 200 Harvard students submitted to the same test all but one showed vertigo in a very marked form. Thus James proved that the deaf are immune to dizziness. The boys at the Mount Airy institution prove the same thing."—Philadelphia Record.

Posthumous Humor.

A man who puts a joke into his will is certainly in a position to laugh last. The police commissioner of a small town in the department of Seine-et-Oise, France, has just been the victim of this sort of posthumous humor. A few days ago he was summoned to make the necessary legal investigation in the case of the suicide of a retired railway servant who had the reputation of being a very original character. On a table he found a large envelope bearing the words, "This is my last will and testament," which he transmitted to the proper quarter.

Two days later the commissary was informed that he was sole legatee. When an inventory of the estate was made, however, it was found that the legatee just about balanced the assets and that consequently, after paying the funeral expenses the commissary's legacy would consist of debts. He may refuse the legacy, but a fee has to be paid in such cases, and he will be out of pocket whether he accepts or refuses.

Selection of British Colonial Governors.

The question of the proper salary for the governor general of Australia has been discussed by a speech from Lord Tennyson, who is now acting in that capacity. He has declared that £10,000 a year is ample to maintain the fitting dignity of the great post, though not of course sufficient to keep up a court of oriental magnificence. The Australian like the Canadian and the South African, with the exception of the Cape, is a great admirer of the British monarch. But they have little reverence for a monarch which any monarch can afford to be. In South Africa £10,000 a year is barely sufficient owing to the expense of traveling everywhere, but there with past a wife. The only expense in the British colonies which should not be thrown on the governor or viceroy is the keeping up of their residences which should be statutory and should be the property of the colonies.

the first race of the season at the Springfield track yesterday.

The Gentlemen's Driving club of Springfield held a matinee Wednesday afternoon race at the city track.

The first race was won by John

W. Clary, of this city. The heats were all half-mile distance and the time was 1:24 1/2 and 1:21.

The second race was a special for named horses with three entries. The winner was Billy Mc, owned by J. A.

Kinard, of Springfield. Gold Plate took the first heat, but failed to come back. The time was 1:15, 1:13 1/2 and 1:14.

In the 2:40 class trot Orphan Boy, owned by O. B. Smith, of New Berlin, went under the wire a winner in two heats over a field of three entries. The time was 1:16 1/4 and 1:17.

The last race was the free-for-all trot and there were five starters.

Francis Corbett, owned by Albert

Masters, won the race in the time of 1:10 and 1:09 1/4.

Sheriff Brainerd, the owner of Joe

Joker, and B. F. Wright, the owner of Fabiola, both stated to President

Clary of the local association that they expected to be here with their horses at the Sept. 11 matinee and try arguments with Goldsecker in the free-for-all pace. A good card is in prospect for the Sept. matinee and there will be exhibitions between heats, so that an interesting program will no doubt result.

MAD DOG SCARE.

Another mad dog scare occurred

Wednesday morning, when a black and white cur, said to belong to Joe

Price, ran amuck on South West street, near Anna. The dog was acting in a strange manner and snapping promiscuously at their curs it passed.

It was followed along Anna street to South Sandy, where it was finally shot to death by Wesley James. If the animal really had the rabies, there will probably be more excitement in the vicinity, as he succeeded in biting several other dogs before he was put to death.

SENATOR HOPKINS MAKES AN EMPHATIC DENIAL.

In response to a letter addressed to United States Senator A. J. Hopkins, asking from him a statement for publication as to the truth of the stories published widely to the effect that he had been requested by President Roosevelt to ask Governor Yates not to become a candidate for renomination and that the senator himself had urged the governor not to be a candidate, the State Journal has received from the senator the following direct and emphatic denial, which explains itself:

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 21, 1903. Mr. C. R. Paul, the Illinois State Journal, Springfield, Ill. My Dear Sir: Your letter of the 17th inst., calling my attention to a number of articles which have appeared in the press of the state, making the statement that I was the bearer of a message from President Roosevelt to Governor Yates, urging the governor not to be a candidate for renomination, and that I had also had a conference with him and urged him to refrain from being a candidate for renomination, has been received.

There is no truth in either of these statements.

President Roosevelt has never requested me to be the bearer of such a message and has never intimated in my presence, or to my knowledge, that he did not wish to see Governor Yates a candidate for renomination.

I have never stated to the governor that he ought not to be a candidate for renomination.

The press statements which you mention are wholly without foundation.

My relations with Governor Yates now are and always have been of a most cordial character. Truly yours, A. J. Hopkins.

SUBTERRANEAN RAILWAYS.

The investment of a quarter of a billion dollars is involved in London's subterranean railway system, says a recent commercial report from London, and this goes to show the colossal proportions of the subterranean railway system of that great city. Mr. Haward, controller of the London county council, in his evidence given recently before the London traffic commission, stated that the capital now invested in what London calls the "tubes" is 7,318,000 pounds. This amount, it may be said also, means more mileage than a similar sum invested in subway work in New York, where the engineering problems are difficult, whereas Mr. Yerkes is on record as saying that the loan and earth on which London is built is "cut like cheese." Of tubes now in course of construction, the cost, according to Mr. Haward, will approximate 18,493,000 pounds, while those authorized but not commenced involve an amount estimated at 3,680,000 pounds. Bills introduced in parliament at its recent session contemplate the expenditure of 20,586,000 pounds for new railways and the extension of existing ones, thus making a grand total of $250,000,000, in round numbers, for "tubes" for the world's metropolis. Of course all these bills may not become laws, but on the other hand there is likely to be an extension rather than a diminution of these vast plans for rapid subterranean transit in London. The plans for the completion of the underground railway system in London are complex, it is said, but when carried out, will give London one of the most marvelous railway systems in the world. American capital and American brains are doing most of it.

The Terrible American Child.

The process of evolution still fails to civilize the American child. Miss Floretta Vining, a newspaper proprietor in Massachusetts, proposes to assist the process with the birch. The American child, she says, needs "thrashing." Miss Vining has dined at a house where a little girl was allowed to read a novel at table and to disregard the maternal order to "stop reading and eat your dinner." When the meat came round the child "crumpled bread into the gravy, reading all the time." "I was so mad," says Miss Vining. Her desire to spank that little girl will awaken general sympathy. But destiny may have something worse in store for the American child. If Mr. Roosevelt's forebodings over the birth rate are well founded there will soon be no more American children. They will all be foreigners.—London Chronicle.

Pleasing Reflections.

"Mabel is a good looking lass," remarked Goldsborough. "And she is fond of surveying herself in a good looking glass," added Throckmorton.—Detroit Free Press.

THE MARKEE FAMILY BAND PLAYING HERE THIS WEEK.

The above illustration shows Capt. R. C. Markee standing at the left of his excellent wife. Mr. and Mrs. Markee are the parents of the eleven sons shown in the illustration, all of whom are skilled musicians, except the little tot in front of the drum. The Markee Family Brass band has been playing before the public over five years, and previous to this played as a string band since the five older sons were old enough to master their instruments. It is the largest and best band known composed wholly of father and sons.

Captain Markee was born in June, 1845, in Tippecanoe, Ohio. He moved to Fulton, Ill., with his parents and in 1863 enlisted in the Thirty-fourth Illinois infantry and served during the remainder of the war of the rebellion. In 1873 he married Miss Lucy Churchill at Albany, Ill.

Captain Markee is a prominent G. A. R. man and commander of Me-

Kimley regiment No. 30, of the Union Veterans' union, of Quincy, Ill. Mrs. Markee is an excellent singer, plays the piano and alto horn. She is department senior vice president of the Ladies of the G. A. R., past department chaplain of the Woman's V. R. U., and a member of the Woman's Relief corps. The band is the official musical organization of the Bucklin & Darnaby Carnival company and is most cordially received wherever it plays.

INFAMOUS INSULT TO RUSSIA

The London Referee tells the following amusing incident: A portion of that paper was blacked out by the Russian censor. As the article was absolutely harmless the editor wrote a polite letter to the Russian authorities asking for an explanation. The reply sent from the office of the press censor was that the following paragraph was objected to: "So far as the Czarowitz is concerned, this animal occupies an absurd position. He has no chance and the sooner he is added to the list of 'dead ones' the better." The press censor begged to point out that to refer to the czarowitz as "this animal" was not only insolent, but to suggest that he should be murdered or added to the list of "dead ones" was infamous. It was only when the editor explained that he was referring to a horse and a race and not to the heir to the Russian throne that the Referee was once again allowed to be delivered to its subscribers in the dominions of the czar.

The Rare American Sailor.

The American sailor is getting to be a very rare bird in these days, says a writer in Leslie's Monthly. Perhaps it is not a well known fact, though any man familiar with shipping matters knows it. The recruiting officers for the navy have the very greatest difficulty in getting Americans even for our men-of-war. If we have not sailors trained in the merchant marine, where will we get crews in time of war? I have been with a crowd of navy men who were on shore leave in Vera Cruz when there were not ten words spoken in English.

Even on the big lines which fly the American flag in the foreign trade the crews are in reality foreigners, though many of them have taken out first papers in order to get berths in the line.

Trees in Cities.

No part of a city should be so built as to exclude shade. More important is that function of trees which absorbs the carbon gases and purifies the atmosphere. In the city of Washington there are 80,000 trees, and these are not at the mercy of a political organization. They are cared for by a special city commission. Every city in the United States should have a park commission. This commission should consist of the best educated foresters and tree lovers who can be secured. Paris contains 100,000 trees and spends $60,000 a year on their care. Her streets are over sixty-five feet wide and lined with double rows of trees, while the broader thoroughfares have a tree planted strip down the middle.—Independent.

Just Indignation.

"Dad burn you!" says the milkman to the druggist. "I've got a notion to prosecute you!"

"What's the matter?" asks the druggist. "Matter enough, you swindler! That last barrel of formaldehyde you sold me was adulterated. That's what's the matter! I thought that you was an honest man and sold people pure goods!"

Continuing to mutter to himself and shake his head with the intensity of his passion, the milkman climbs into his wagon and drives away, after leaving a bottle of milk for the druggist's family.—Chicago Tribune.

"Gassing" trees has become so large a business in California that a Los Angeles man has an outfit for it which cost $10,000. Tents are used to confine the gas to the trees and to protect the operators from the deadly prussic acid which is liberated from a saucer at the tree's root.

The Tucson chamber of commerce has given the site and will install a water supply and an electric light plant for the Desert laboratory of the Carnegie institution on a mountain two miles west of their city. The object of the undertaking is to study the plants characteristic of arid regions.

On a newly erected memorial stone in Yarmouth appears this inscription: "In memory of — who died of disease contracted in South Africa. The Lord be praised." While this has this epitaph: "Beneath this soil a lump of clay lies Arabella Young, who on the 24th of May began to read her tongue." Within the last year an industry of much importance to American paint manufacturers and dealers has sprung into existence near Malaga, Spain. A rich vein of oxide of iron ore, known as hematite, valuable chiefly for the manufacture of red paint for structural iron work, has been developed. The production of hematite in the United States has been falling off in spite of an increasing demand.

An effort is now being made to introduce sweet potatoes and yams from Barbados to the English cook. Edith—Ah, yes! Why, he has just lost his position on account of inattention to business.

The Making of Books.

Books are now multiplied to such a degree that it is impossible to read them all or even to know their number and titles. One large publisher last year sold 1,500 tons of a certain set of books, or 3,000,000 pounds. That is only a drop in the bucket, when all the output is considered. Fortunately one is not obliged to read all that is published, either by the volume or the pound. Lubbock's hundred books idea was appropriated from a man who wanted to write a hundred folio volumes and employ the temporal and spiritual power to compel people to read them.—New York Press.

Insect Balloons.

Insects enjoying aerial navigation by the use of balloons were recently caught by a French naturalist, who noticed them as small, bright objects floating in the air and behaving as if they were being steered. He caught some of them and found them to be viscous air bubbles one-fourth of an inch long, of uniform dimensions and showing iridescent reflections. Each balloon was suspended by the feet of an insect resembling the hornet fly.

CORPORATION REPORT.

Secretary of State Rose began yesterday to mail out certified lists of active corporations in the state of Illinois. The compilation shows about 11,000 corporations existing in Illinois, an increase of 2,000 in the last year. The number of corporations formed last year has reached nearly 4,000, but 1,600 that were living a year ago have since dissolved.

Some delay has been experienced in the work, as it was desired to incorporate in it the decision of the supreme court on the constitutionality of the act providing for annual reports by corporations to the secretary of state. As that question will not be passed upon until the October term of court, however, it was finally decided to issue the volume without waiting for a legal decision of the question.

A SURE CURE FOR DIARRHOEA

Coming as it does, in the busiest season when a man can least afford to lose time, a sure and quick cure for diarrhoea is very desirable. Anyone who has given it a trial will tell you that the quickest, surest and most pleasant remedy in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is no loss of time when it is used, as one or two doses of it will cure any ordinary attack. It never fails, not even in the most severe and dangerous cases. Nevada is larger in area than any of the states except Texas, Montana and California, yet its population in 1900 was only 42,335, or less than is found in eighty-nine cities in the United States. There are more inhabitants in such towns as Akron, Saginaw, Dallas and Covington than in the state of Nevada. The highest population Nevada ever reached, 62,266, was in the silver mining days of 1880.

Long Haired Men.

Israel Zangwill says: "There are three reasons why men of genius have long hair. One is that they forget it is growing. The second is that they like it. The third is that it comes cheaper. They wear it long for the same reason that they wear their hats long. Owing to this peculiarity of genius you may get quite a reputation for lack of 25 cents."

Recent visitors to Los Angeles had the pleasure of calling on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, who are very pleasantly located in the thriving metropolis of southern California. They come home in good health and fine spirits.

Whatever may be said of the merits and demerits of the street fair and corn carnival, it has certainly supplied a vast amount of amusement to the juvenile department of the city, and it is principally harmless. Boys and girls will be boys and girls and it is useless to try to counteract nature and if they don't have some kind of variety as they go along they will try to seek it themselves and often in ways not as innocent as the affair now in vogue at the present time, so let us all be patient if the noise and some other things are not wholly pleasant; they please a great many.

Interest in Attractions Seems Unabated—Excursions To Day—The Horse Show

The third day of the corn carnival and street fair was favored with continued good weather and the local trains brought nearly 600 people to the city. The morning crowd was not large, but early in the afternoon the park began to fill up and the various shows did a good business. In the evening the square and park were crowded with people, jostling each other and endeavoring to extract enjoyment from the occasion, despite the heat and humidity.

The steam railroad and merry-go-rounds continue to be popular and Tuesday the railroad carried 1,800 passengers and the merry-go-rounds as many more. The street fair fakir is in evidence everywhere and countless articles, from the proverbial rubber balls to the duster ticklers, are on sale. The pancake man and the hamburger dispenser are a rushing business during the late hours of the evening and the abounding eloquence of the show manager is heard above the din and prattle of the ever surging crowd.

The supply of confetti continues unlimited and is scattered about with a lavish hand.

Thus far the best order has prevailed and the increased force of special police for both day and night are ample to take care of any disturbance that may arise, although it is sincerely hoped that nothing of this character will occur to mar the festivities of the week.

To day, is excursion day and a large crowd is expected from all directions. Exceptionally low rates have been offered by all railroads and a large number will doubtless take advantage of this opportunity to visit the fair. The horse show will be an especial feature this morning and afternoon and a fine lot of animals will doubtless be exhibited. The free attractions will be the same as usual and are of a meritorious character and well worth witnessing. Good music will continue to be furnished by the Markee band of Quincy and this will doubtless prove the red letter day of the carnival.

THE HORSE SHOW.

The show of saddlers, mares or geldings, took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock. Much interest was shown in the event and several fine animals were shown. The judge was Charles Judy, the well known auctioneer of Tallula.

The first prize, $5, was won by R. L. Pyatt, of Alexander precinct; second, a fine English riding bridle, offered by George Harney, was won by Frank Masters. The contest was open to Morgan county outside of Jacksonville.

To day will occur the show of carriage teams. First prize, $10; second, $5; and single drivers, first prize, $10; second, $5. Entries for the above must be owned in Morgan county, outside of Jacksonville. The free-for-all to enter will be held Friday.

Do you want to see the latest creations in early fall millinery then go to the right place and that place is unquestionably Herman's.

LENT ASSISTANCE.

While a select company of street fair enthusiasts were wending their way through the maze of the midway in Central park, taking in the various attractions without a miss, one of the women in the party was overcome by the excitement and enthusiasm which abounds upon every hand and said she could go no further. It was hardly thought advisable to call an ambulance and two men in the party volunteered to render the necessary assistance and procuring a strong board they mounted their weary traveler upon it and pushed through the multitude with as much ease as an ambulance corps of the regular army might have done.

WASHINGTON LETTER

(Special Correspondence.)

Work on the great tunnel which will lead under Capitol hill to the Union depot at Massachusetts and Delaware avenues has been begun. Mr. E. G. Williams, representing the New York Continental-Jewell Filtration company, contractors for the tunnel under agreement with the Pennsylvania railroad, has been at the District building going over with the engineer authorities the various details of the preliminary plans for several days.

The construction of this tunnel will be one of the most important features of the Union station project. The contracting company is making elaborate plans for carrying on the work.

One of the problems to be solved is the disposition of the thousands of tons of earth to be removed from the excavation. The contractors have leased a wharf near the foot of South Capitol street and will construct a narrow gauge railway from the tunnel mouth at the junction of New Jersey avenue and D street southeast to the wharf. The dirt will be taken down the river on barges and disposed of wherever conditions will permit. A great quantity of the earth will be transported to the new Long bridge for filling in the approach to that structure.

Baggage Men to Handle Newspapers.

Baggage men on trains not provided with mail clerks are to be employed by the post office department to take charge of and deliver open newspaper mail, according to a decision of Postmaster General Payne. For the present the new service will be tried as an experiment. Later it may be much extended.

This decision has been reached after much consideration, and in response to a petition filed by many of the leading newspaper publishers of the country who asked the department to provide facilities for distributing open bundles of papers along the lines from trains which carry only closed pouches. There are a large number of such trains, and as the department is not represented by an employee on them the postmaster general declined to assume responsibility for papers not inclosed in the pouches. Second Assistant Postmaster General Shallenberger then suggested the expedient of employing the baggage men to take charge of the mail in such cases, and the suggestion was adopted.

Secretary Root's Retirement.

Secretary Root, who has gone to London to attend to his duties as a member of the Alaskan boundary commission, will return to Washington in the fall after the work on the boundary commission has been completed. It probably will be merely for the purpose of preparing his last annual report and winding up the affairs of his administration.

The secretary does not expect to remain in the cabinet after the first of the year. His purpose to retire was formed several months ago. It was not carried into effect partly on account of the added weight which will be given to his counsel in the boundary commission through his connection with the administration. It has been the president's earnest wish also that he should remain at the head of the war department just as long as he could without too great a sacrifice of his own interests.

Judge Taft, governor of the Philippines, will be Secretary Root's successor if the present plans of the administration go into effect. This has been on the cards for some time.

Hall of Records Site.

It is announced at the treasury department that there will be little if any of the property in square 143, between E and F and Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, to be condemned by the secretary of the treasury before the entire square can be obtained by the government as a site for the proposed hall of records. Practically every property owner in the square has now notified the treasury of his willingness to part with his real estate at two and one-tenth times the assessed valuation, the basis of settlement fixed by Secretary Shaw. Several of the principal owners who were holding out have informed officials of the treasury that they would accept Secretary Shaw's proposition. It is stated that there is one small lot in the square that is in litigation and the legal title to which is to be determined and that there are possibly one or two others that it may be necessary to condemn, but even the owners of these are expected to accept the treasury basis.

The McClellan Statue.

The commission consisting of Secretary Root, Senator Wetmore and General Ruggles appointed to select a sculptor to design a statue of General McClellan to be erected in Washington has chosen Frederick MacMonnies of New York. The statue probably will be placed in the reservation south of the state department.

The Shaws.

Mrs. Shaw, wife of the secretary of the treasury, and their two daughters are in Paris, where they will stay for several weeks. They will make trips from there, going when and where they please. The secretary will not join them, but will spend his vacation at different places in this country. His wife and daughters will return to America late in September.

Increased Postal Receipts.

The postal receipts at the fifty leading offices during July show a gain of almost 9 per cent over the corresponding month of 1902. New York made a gain of 9 per cent, Chicago 6, Philadelphia 7 and St. Louis 11 per cent. Columbus, O., made the largest gain, 30 per cent. Los Angeles, Cal., made a gain of over 20 per cent.

Robbing Birds' Nests.
Boys who rob birds' nests do not always realize what a cruel thing it is to do. I used not to think much about it myself until an incident occurred that showed me how keenly our feathered friends mourn the loss of their homes. One spring two linnets built their nests in some bushes near my window. We were all very much interested in the wee home, and when we found four little eggs inside the nest took every precaution to prevent it from being disturbed. But one morning when we went as usual to peep at the nest we found some cruel hand had robbed and destroyed it.

We felt very sorry, but thought the birds would perhaps build again. Alas, no. When they returned and found their nest home broken up their grief was painful to see. Uttering all the most piteous cries, they flitted about in circles high above the nest. Then they hopped all round the bushes, thinking, I suppose, poor mites, that the eggs had fallen out. For two days they continued their search, and on the third day they had left, as we did not notice them about. We were partly right, for the father bird had really gone and did not return again, but the body of his poor-wee mate was found by us chill and lifeless on the ground by the bushes, and we felt quite sure then that the loss of her dear home had broken her tender heart.—Buffalo News.

Daniel Webster's Boyhood.
Webster's early life contradicts the popular notion that a man is the creature of circumstances. He, on the contrary, made circumstances his creatures. One of his friends writing after his death said:

"His school time was much interrupted, and from his own lips I learned that Webster's struggle for an education was continued from his early childhood to his thirtieth year. Every step in advance was contested by obstacles, which he met with a lion heart and with a lion's courage overthrew."

"His books were few at this time. There were a copy of Watts' hymns, a cheap pamphlet copy of Pope's 'Essay on Man' and the Bible, from which he first learned to read, together with an occasional almanac. He used to say that at the age of fourteen he could recite the whole of the 'Essay on Man.'"

"He entered Dartmouth college in 1797, but was desperately poor. A friend sent a recipe while at college for greasing his boots. He wrote back and thanked him very politely. 'But,' he added, 'my boots need other doctoring, for they not only admit water, but even peas and gravel stones.'"

The Conscience Man.
The Conscience Man who lives with me I hear and feel, but cannot see. He lives with me both day and night; He's never wrong, but always right.

He has his house within my breast And guards and warns me without rest. And, though an endless watch he keeps, He never tires and never sleeps.

Sometimes a mournful song he sings, Which to my heart deep sorrow brings, And when I hear his sad, sad song, I know he's right and I am wrong.

And when I seem to be alone And think the Conscience Man has flown I listen, and I hear, "Beware!" And know the Conscience Man is there.

I'm sure that he is always good And tells me all the things he should And grieves to see me come to shame And sorrow when I am to blame.

And all my life he pleads and prays For me to keep from evil ways, And I believe that no one can Begood without the Conscience Man.—Arthur Macy in Youth's Companion.

Nelson and His Midshipmen.
Nelson always took great interest in the training of the young midshipmen on the ships which he commanded and never failed to be kind and considerate to them. If he saw any one of them who was by nature timid he would not speak harshly to him and so drive out what little courage the boy had, but would offer to race him to the masthead or some such place, and when they had climbed there he would take no notice of the midshipman's fears, if he showed any, but would smile kindly, saying, "I wonder that any one could fear to do such an easy thing as you and I have just done." Thus the boy got over his cowardice and learned to love his captain, who throughout his life showed the same consideration for those around him.

Pennies for the Heavens.
Madge, aged seven, had a list of questions and answers given her by her Sunday school teacher to learn the first of which was, "What is a missionary?" and the answer, "One sent to teach the heathen." The list was duly learned, and she went to Sunday school full of importance that she had her lesson perfect. On her return she was asked if she had remembered the answers, and she replied: "Yes, mamma, I only missed the first, and in that I only made a mistake of a penny. I said, 'Two cents to teach the heathen' instead of 'I cent.'"

Change of Nationality.
One day there was a man clinging to a strap in a crowded street car. A sudden jolt precipitated him into the lap of one of the passengers.

"What kind of a man are you?" exclaimed the woman indignantly.

To which he replied, "I was an Irishman when I came here, but now I seem to be a Laplander."—Little Chronicle.

Why Was He Crying?
Hal, who had gone away alone upon a visit, was surprised after he had gone to bed by an aunt who found him crying bitterly. "What's the matter?" she inquired. "Why do you cry?" "No," he sobbed, looking up at her through his tears. "Only I was thinking how much they must be missing me at home."—New York Times.

Alfred Bieri of Chicago, the composer and author of the new national hymn entitled "Columbia," has just had conferred upon him the degree of doctor of music by Heidelberg university.

Bird S. McGuire, the new delegate to congress from Oklahoma, is an all-around athlete and is believed to have assisted in the conviction of more criminals than any other lawyer in the twin territories.

Lady Henry Somerset, who has retired from the presidency of the National British Woman's Temperance association, became especially well known in this country about nine years ago by carrying on a crusade against the "living picture" craze. At that time she made an extensive tour of the United States, speaking much on dress reform for women.

The egg crop of the United States is worth $145,000,000 and the poultry worth $130,000,000. To haul to market all the eggs that the hens lay every year would take a train of cars 500 miles long.

HINTS FOR FARMERS.

Grain.—The grain harvest is well advanced, and there is a considerable surplus of grain in the hands of the farmers. The grain market is strong, and the price of grain is high. The grain market is strong, and the price of grain is high.

Our Patrons' fire insurance has demonstrated to the public and our members that we can co-operate successfully, and I feel confident if our life insurance is started it will meet with the same success.

"Our Patrons should be interested in everything that will elevate and beautify the community in which they live, and our granges should take a more active interest in good roads, good schools, good government and in the care and protection of shade trees."

Arbor day should be more generally observed by the Patrons in Massachusetts.

The Show Type.

It seems that all the talk about the show hog and the farmer's hog has brought about the impression that there is something essentially wrong with the show hog for practical purposes. The show hog must be an animal of good constitution or he could not stand up to his arduous task of being fitted and exhibited. He must have good bone or he could not carry his show flesh into the ring on his pig toes. He must have good form or he could not win. These are all things that we are looking for in the market hog.

The only place the show hog falls down is a practical hog is in his condition. The farmer must not expect a show fitted animal to be so prolific as one that has never been finished, but that has to do only with the individuals and not with the type. With competent judges who are breeders themselves and have due regard to the importance of prolificacy the show type is not a bad type to follow, the boar especially. The average hog raiser has not got sows that are too fine or closely built, and a little more show type won't hurt his herd any. Let's keep in the middle of the road on this question of type of hogs.

Why Nursery Beds Are Best.
In my opinion buds and scions procured from nursery rows are better than those cut from bearing trees, provided that you know absolutely that your trees in the nursery rows are true to name. If you get your buds from nursery rows and grow a block of trees from them, isn't it reasonable to suppose that they are true to name, provided, of course, the nurseryman exercised the proper caution and judgment in staking his blocks and recording the same in his office? And there is no question but that buds grown from nursery rows have this advantage over those from bearing trees in that the chances of introducing insect pests into your orchard are 90 per cent greater when you go into your orchard and procure buds from bearing trees than it is when you get them from nursery rows, because you are getting buds of nursery trees of the same year's growth. In addition to this, the nurseryman cleans up his block every two years, while the orchard is exposed to pests of all kinds from year to year.—J. C. Hall in Rural New Yorker.

Only Thing to Do.

The successful farmer is not the man who follows the same routine year after year. Every season has its peculiarities, every year brings new problems, and these things call for some change of methods to suit them. The farmer cannot work by rule, like the workman in a factory. He must see and think and act in accordance with his best judgment at every turn, and then he is often "up against it" on account of the weather or the market. But there is one consolation in the midst of all his difficulties—he is in a safe business and seldom confronted with a total loss of his year's work. If he does his part well he will succeed somewhere. The only thing to do is to keep a-thinking and a-doing.—Stockman and Farmer.

Orchards in Seed.

A feasible method for lands which are very steep and in danger of washing or too rough, stony or stumpy to cultivate readily is to grow grass, mowing once or, better, twice a year and using the hay as a mulch about the trees. If this plan is adopted special care should be exercised in preparing the soil. The holes should be large and the soil well pulverized and enriched before setting the trees.

Mulching has much the same effect as tillage, and the cost is less. With proper pruning, spraying and fertilizing this method would prove successful on many lands which are now yielding the owners practically no return.—Editorial in N. Y. Times.

Farmers and New Ideas.

Farmers are generally accused of being slow to adopt new ideas. This is not because of the fact that they till the soil and mind the cows, but because they live farther apart than other people and do not enter the social relations open to other classes. New ideas do not come to them as they do to the city dwellers, who are in touch with the community with such ready means. The farmer, however, and the village dweller will grow a new idea as they grow a new crop.

One of the most common mistakes of the individual who does not jump at conclusions is that he is in a hurry to jump at conclusions.—J. C. Hall in New York Journal.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Willie Was Glad That He Had Another Brother.

The brothers had more or less trouble with the boy next door, and hadn't always come out victors. In fact, the boy next door was so much bigger that he seemed to have the best of it invariably.

So it wasn't an unusual thing when one of the brothers came into the house with a badly bruised eye. Moreover, he was crying when his aunt stopped him in the hall.

"Hush, Willie," she said. "You mustn't make any noise."

"What's the matter?" he asked between his sobs.

"You may disturb your new brother," said his aunt soothingly.

He dried his eyes in a minute.

"Have I got a new brother?" he asked.

His aunt nodded.

"One besides Jim?"

She nodded again.

"Bully!" he exclaimed.

"You're glad of it?" she asked.

"You bet!" he fairly shouted. "If Jim an' me an' the new one can't lick that feller we'd better move."

"He was regarded as a brilliant young man."

"But he couldn't succeed in politics."

"Not in my state. He made the same old blunder. He prided himself on being quick at repartee instead of quick at figures."—Washington Star.

Hard Directions to Follow.

The outcome of the filly will be watched with interest.

A NATURAL RESULT.

It is very reasonable to suppose if the foundation of a structure was removed that the building itself is bound to come down. This same principle can be applied to disease. Take remove the cause of sickness, and the illness leaves of itself. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, sickheadache and biliousness have their foundation in stomach disorders. Remove this weakness and the other symptoms are no more. There is one cure for this that all druggists sell for 25c per box. It is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. They get right at the beginning of these diseases and make the cure by taking away the cause of it. We will send a small box free by mail, or a large box on receipt of 25c. ON THE GOLF LINKS

Prof. Tollifson Speaks Words of Praise for Local Course—
 Play Nine Holes in 37—
 Other Golf News.

In the preliminaries for the Kirby-Capps cup Wednesday Ayers defeated Luttrell in a very close contest, winning out on the last hole. Sanders won his match with Hubbell by default as the latter was out of the city.

Ayers and Sanders and Osborne and Greenleaf will play the semi-finals to day and the winner of the cup will be known Friday or Saturday.

Saturday, between 1 p. m. and 3 p. m., Professor Tollifson will play against the best ball of three of the local players with lowest scores.

Professor Tollifson played a round with Miss Elizabeth Robertson yesterday, making the score of 37, equaling the record of the course held by Marcy Osborne. He has nothing but words of praise for the local links and the only improvements suggested are bunkers and the allowance of time for the perfection of the putting greens.

In comparison with other courses of the country, Prof. Tollifson stated that none of them excelled the local course in natural location which resembled the Lake Geneva course in a remarkable degree.

Professor Tollifson is not only an experienced golfer well versed in the fine points of the game, but is a perfect gentleman whom it is a pleasure to meet and it is to be regretted that his stay in the city is to be so short.

The train on which McGrath was braking was a gravel train. Some gravel had just been dumped at Forest City and the train was backing up. McGrath was standing on the platform of the caboose when at a sudden stop of the train he lost his balance and fell beneath the wheels. Both legs were cut off near the knees.

THE MATRIMONIAL RECORD.

SEIBER-NUNES.

Carl F. Seiber and Miss Etta May Nunes, both of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. A. L. Plovman at the parsonage, 511 East College avenue. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few witnesses being present.

The bride is well known in this city and is a young lady who possesses many friends. The groom is the son of E. R. Seiber and is an apprentice of his father. He is a young man of industry and steady habits. He will reside in this city.

WHEELER-PEAK.

A marriage of more than ordinary interest in the social circles of Morgan and Scott counties occurred Wednesday evening when Miss Edith Alberta Peak, of Winchester, became the bride of Mr. George Alexander Wheeler, of Sinclair.

The wedding ceremony was performed at the elegant country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Peak, who live three miles southeast of Winchester. The solemn service was said by Rev. Messrs. Geo. C. Lenington, of Virginia, and J. H. Hawker, of Winchester, in a most impressive manner.

The trth was plighted on the spacious porch of the Peak residence and the bride and groom and Miss Ruby Peak, sister of the bride, the maid of honor, and Mr. Philip Wheeler, of Chicago, brother of the groom, the best man, entered from the hall-way to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, brilliantly played by Miss Bertha Weddle, of Monticello, and took their positions before the ministers beneath a beautifully decorated arch adorned with golden rod and asparagus fern. The lawn was brilliantly illumined with Japanese lanterns and here the guests had seats where they witnessed the ceremony.

After the words of hearty congratulation had been spoken all repaired to the house, where an elegant wedding supper was served, perfect in all its details.

The bride is one of the most accomplished young ladies of Winchester of deserved popularity, possessing a charm of manner and personality that is altogether pleasing.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler, of Sinclair, and is a young man of strong character and ability, who has devoted himself to the interests of farming and stock raising with an earnest application that argues well for his future success.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler left on the 11:30 train for Niagara Falls and will visit in other eastern cities before their return from their wedding journey. Upon their return they will reside on a farm near Sinclair.

RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Pawtucket, R. I., Aug. 26.—Jennie Montague, aged 23, is dead and her companion, John F. Bannon, aged 22, is violently insane as the result of a runaway accident to night. For half a mile they clung to their seat in the carriage. The girl jumped and 100 yards further on Bannon followed her example. Miss Montague died an hour later. Bannon escaped with painful body bruises, but as soon as he learned of his companion's condition he became violently insane.

THE WEATHER

Corn Shows More Improvement
 as Result of Heat.

While the rain which fell in the city Wednesday morning hardly laid the dust, good showers were reported both east and west of us. Between here and Chapin in places the roads were fairly muddy. The scorching days and sweltering nights are doing wonders for the corn crop and the grain is maturing in a most satisfactory manner. Dame Nature generally evens things up pretty well and although a few weeks ago the prospect was anything but bright, indications now are so much more favorable that the market price has been affected and the stock market has felt the change in the increased purchase of cattle. Locally we are much in need of rain and a few timely showers would be most welcome.

THE DEATH RECORD.

HARGRAVE.

Mrs. Matilda Hargrave, whose home is in Christian county near Taylorville, died Tuesday evening after an illness extending over several months. Her death was due to a cerebral disease, of which she had long been a sufferer. She was 59 years of age and had always lived in Christian county, where her husband, who survives her, is a prominent farmer.

She was highly respected at her home and was a woman devoted to her home and friends. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Miss Nellie, who in 1901 and 1902 was a student at the Woman's college. Learning of the deceased's critical condition both husband and daughter started for this city, but before their arrival here she had passed away. The remains were taken to Taylorville Wednesday morning for interment.

FUNERALS.

WOOD.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mason Wood, who died Monday night at her home in Waverly after a long illness, was held at the residence in that city Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were in charge of Rev. Mr. Smith, pastor of the M. E. church, of which deceased was for many years a member.

KILLED HIS OWN DOG.

Alderman James Babb found it next to an impossibility between dog fights and the warm condition of the atmosphere on Tuesday night to get any sleep and following out the argument he has often made in the city council that the best way to do away with the dog nuisance was to kill the dogs, he got out his trusty six shooter, oiled it thoroughly and slipping out the side door and around the corner of the shed he set eyes on a bunch of dogs just beginning the sixth round in a knockout fight. He did not want to kill more than three dogs at one shot, so he waited a minute that he might draw an accurate aim on the dog doing the loudest yelping. His opportunity soon came and he blazed away, his aim was true and the dog rolled over, while the others went up the street hitting the high places only. It was then early in the morning and thinking there was some chance yet to get a few minutes' sleep he thought he would wait until daylight to see how well he had shot. As he went back into the house, however, he glanced into the shed where his own dog usually sleeps, but found it was gone. A further investigation revealed the fact that he had shot his own dog.

ANOTHER DOWIE DEATH.

Arkansas City, Kans., Aug. 26.—Mrs. Maggie P. Ballard's death, which occurred here to day, is the subject of considerable discussion. She had been sick for two weeks with peritonitis, but refused to have a physician called until Saturday, when it did no good. Her relatives and herself are followers of Dowie and his belief, and several times in the past week they have had healers here. During her entire illness her sufferings have been terrible, and she was given no relief.

BIG OLD NUGGET.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 26.—A dispatch from La Paz, Mexico, says that the richest gold nugget ever found in Mexico was discovered a few days ago near that place by G. T. Robinson, captain of the vessel Corrigan. The nugget is nearly twenty inches thick and is valued at $75,000. Captain Robinson, who was at La Paz awaiting a cargo, went a short distance into the interior and discovered the nugget on the land of M. Mendosa.

ROB ALASKA MINE.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 26.—Four masked men held up the watchman of the Featherstone-Haugh mines in Atlin, Alaska, and stole nearly $20,000 worth of gold dust that had been collected during the day in the mine chutes. The watchman was caught from behind, bound and gagged and pinioned down and in twenty minutes the big clean-up was in canvas sacks which the robbers brought for the purpose. They fled in the darkness.

BOY BURIED ALIVE.

Callaway, Neb., Aug. 26.—Claus Christenson, aged 12 years, was killed yesterday by being buried alive. The boy was hunting for gophers, accompanied by his dog, and when night fell he failed to come home.

This morning searching parties hunted for him and discovered the dog sitting near the dirt walls of a canyon. An investigation disclosed the boy's feet protruding from a mass of earth, which had fallen on him. When dug out he was dead. It is supposed he had attempted to crawl into a hole after some wild animal.
